Did You Know

Facts About Freemasonry

What does (A.D. and A.L. mean and why) when the Secretary reads the minutes?

A.D. means (Anno Domini ~ in the year of our Lord) and is the Christian method of designating the number of years following the birth of Christ. Freemason's nomenclature in this respect comes from the old belief (entirely erroneous) that the world was created 4,000 years before Christ and therefore indicates the date as 4,000 years plus the current year, for instance, 2001 A.D. or 6001 A.L. (Anno Lucis ~ in the year of Light) the present year.

TRANSPORTATION

We would like to see as many members as possible attending Lodge, should you need a ride please call any of my officers, their phone numbers are on the back of each notice, thankyou.
